

Autism on the Hill

Wednesday, April 2nd, 2014 - 12:15pm to 12:45pm
Parliament Hill

Please join us for Autism on the Hill as we recognize World Autism Awareness Day.

Where: The steps of Parliament Hill from 12:15 to 12:45pm

Bring your friends, colleagues and children. Autism pins will be handed out at noon.

Our goal is to raise awareness. Through coming together and speaking with one voice - we can achieve a better life for people and families affected by autism.

We are honoured to have as our keynote speakers The Hon Mike Lake, MP.; The Hon Jim Munson; and Mr. Glenn Thibeault, MP - who are all champions for people with autism and their families.

Our banner will feature “The Faces of Autism”, a collection of photos of Canadians on the spectrum. Let’s fill the banner! Please send in your photos to AutismOnTheHill@gmail.com. Follow us on Twitter: @AutismOntheHill #AutismOnTheHill (photos should be high quality (1 MB) and in jpeg or png format)

Autism is a neurological condition with a rapidly increasing prevalence, currently affecting 1 in 88 children.
